Managing Editor
M. Allison Wise

Since its founding in 1935 as the newsletter for the South Atlantic Modern Language Association, South Atlantic Review has become a premier academic quarterly publishing research in the modern languages and literatures, as well as in associated fields such as film, cultural studies, and rhetoric/composition. The journal welcomes submissions of essays, maximum length 8,000 words, that are accessible, and of broad interest, to its diverse readership across a number of disciplines. Submissions may be made electronically directly to the managing editor at the address above. SAR also welcomes proposals for special issues and special focus sections.

Additional information regarding submission requirements and book reviews can be found on our website at <http://samla.memberclicks.net/sar>.

In Appreciation. South Atlantic Review wishes to acknowledge the generous contributions and support provided by Ashley Cowden Fisk, Michael LeMahieu, Cameron Bushnell, by the Clemson University Department of English chaired by Susanna Ashton, and by the College of Arts, Architecture, and the Humanities.
